General Information

The Cobb County Radio Control (CCRC) Modelers Club was founded in 1962. Membership includes members who fly both fixed wing and rotary wing aircraft. The CCRC manages the Cobb County Sports Aviation Complex for the Cobb County Department of Parks, Recreation and Cultural Affairs. For additional information about the CCRC please contact one of the officers listed below or visit our website at <http://www.ccrc.info>. The Cobb County Sports Aviation Complex is the only location in Georgia which provides space, support and training for model airplanes and helicopters within the the same complex. The montly club meeting is held the third Saturday of each month at 12:00 noon. Some Meetins may be held at other locations as required, contact a CCRC officer to confirm the location of the club meeting
